
Curiosity Pays Off!

Gordon Staples, left above, of Evergreen was looking through a Rural Electric magazine recently and saw an "ad" that really aroused his curiousity! He ordered plans and with the help of Wayne Ferrell, Leland Bacon and Fletcher Harris - and at a cost of $100.00 - made the bean sheller shown above. In the photo with Staples is W. D. Cunningham on the right.

Taking approximately seventy-five hours to build, the bean sheller will shell a bushel of beans at a time in seven to fifteen minutes, depending on the condition of the beans. Staples tells us that the beans will shell better if no water is on the shells.

The bean sheller is kept at the Staples home in Evergreen and has been used by many people in the area. Beans are shelled by appointment, so if interested you can give Gordon a call and save hours of work shelling by hand those delicious beans you have picked from your garden.

Local Ham Operators To Sponsor Booth At 5-County Fair

Local Amateur Radio "HAM") operators will be sponsoring a special booth at the Five County Fair in Farmville during the week of Sept. 7-13. The booth will be located in the Brichert Building at the Fairgrounds and will feature a complete operational amateur radio station.

The group has obtained a special license from the Federal Communications Commission to operate the station under the assigned call sign of KF4FCF (Five County Fair). The booth and special license fees have been paid for by local sponsoring merchants.

The booth will be open during Fair hours for the purpose of demonstrating the Hobby of amateur radio to the general public. There are over 230,000 amateur radio operators in the United States holding licenses ranging from Novice (beginner) to Extra Class (most advanced). Amteur radio operators are active in such fields as amateur radio communications satellites (there are presently two in orbit); technical experimental work; amateur television; high frequency repeater networks; communications for emergencies/natural disasters; worldwide radiogram messages; and, of course, general two way conversations with other amateurs all over the world.

A special feature of the booth will be to send free of charge a radiogram message to another party anywhere in the United States or possessions. All one needs to do is to fill out the prepared text message form with the name, address and telephone number of the individual to receive the message. Radiograms are usually delivered in less than 24 hours but no guarantee of delivery is made since the messages are handled on a volunteer basis by other amateurs and no charge is made for the service.

How to pinch pennies like a real pro: dial long distance direct.

Bah humbug, indeed! In these times when every penny you can pinch counts, saving a little extra is nothing to sneeze at.

You'll be amazed how much you can stash away by dialing long distance yourself. In many cases you can dial two or three out-of-state station-to-station calls for what it would cost to make just one through the operator.

If you run into trouble completing your own call, tell the operator. You'll still be eligible for the direct-dial rate.

And to save even more, dial your out-of-state long distance calls when rates are lowest. Just check the call guide in front of your local directory.

What the dickens. From now on when you call long distance, take the direct approach. It pays.

Another classic way your phone company comes through with service.

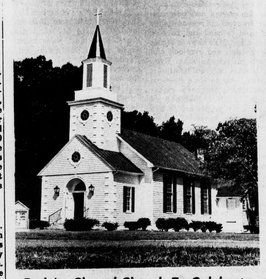
Early's Chapel Church To Celebrate 100th Anniversary Sunday



On Sunday, Sept. 14, 1975, Early Chapel Methodist Church will celebrate its 100th Anniversary beginning with the Sunday School hour at 9:30 a.m. and continuing through the afternoon.

In about the year 1860, a group desiring to have Bible Study started meeting in the "Pugh's Schoolhouse" located in what is now the Sherwill Community. Mr. Jimmie Cardwell & Mr. Jack Pugh, men of outstanding Christian leadership, were class leaders.

As the class began to grow in size and in interest,preaching services were started with the Rev. Linney as the first minister. He would preach for them on Saturday and then would hold his regular service on Sunday at Bethlehem Church in Concord.

As the class continued to grow, the need for a church building became evident. Plans were made and Mr. W. S. Peet, a man from Connecticut who owned a farm now owned by the Sep Evans family, gave the land on which the present building now stands. From funds solicited by subscription from friends far and near, the church was started in 1874 and completed in 1875.It was named for Bishop Early, becoming Early's Chapel Methodist Church. The building was first dedicated on the second Sunday in September of 1875.

First a part of the Appomattox Circuit, as more churches were built it became necessary to divide, thus Early's Chapel became a part of the Concord Circuit. New Bethel Methodist Church and Indian Hill Methodist Church were built. New Bethel is now a part of the Gladys Charge. The parsonage was located in Concord and served well until in the mid 1950's when a new parsonage was built.

The Woman's Missionary Society, oranized in 1902, later became known as the Woman's Society of Christian Service and is now known as the United Methodist Women. Early's Chapel has an active society in all phases of church work.

The church was remodeled in 1897 and again in 1933. In 1950 Early's Chapel celebrated its 75th Anniversary.

In 1957 the Concord Charge was divided from a six-point Circuit to a three-point Charge with Bethany, Indian Hill and Early's Chapel comprising the Bethany Charge. Again a new parsonage had to be built and was located near Bethany Church at Rustburg.

The need arose for an educational unit in 1959 and four classrooms, a hall, full basement, central heat, plumbing and rest rooms were added. The church was greatly blessed with gifts from friends and members and in 1966 a vestibule was added.

With a deep sense of gratitude to the Lord who has blessed them, to those leaders who have led them, and to the Christian fellowship that has helped them grow as a people and as a church for the past one hundred years, they are proud and pleased to celebrate their 100th anniversary and invite all friends, former members and members to come out and share with them in this celebration on Sunday, beginning with the 9:30 a.m. service at the Sunday school hour.

The morning worship service will begin at 11 a.m. with the Rev. John Wesley Inge, a former pastor, as guest minister. Lunch will be furnished by the women of the church. The afternoon program of remembrances, group singing and special music will begin at 2 p.m.

With sincere pride in their past, dedication to the present, and hope for the future, Early's Chapel Methodist Church invites you to share with them the day you have helped them to reach - their One-hundredth Anniversary.

New Postage Rates in Effect Sunday

On Sept. 25, 1973, the U.S. Postal Service filed with the Postal Rate Commission a request for new domestic rates. On March 2, 1974, pending a decision from the Commission, the U.S. Postal Service placed in effect temporary rates, limited by law to not more than one-third higher than the permanent rates in effect at that time. Highlights of the postage rate changes are: First Class Mail. The rate for the first ounce or fraction of an ounce remains at 10 cents. However, each additional ounce or fraction of an ounce will be at the rate of 9 cents. Postal Cards. The rate for postal and post cards has been reduced to 7 cents. Third Class. This rate will be 10 cents for the first two ounces or fraction thereof and 8 cents for each additional 2 ounces or fraction. Parcel Post. Fourth class rates are changed, except library rates and single piece catalog rate. Also, Parcels over 84 inches but not exceeding 100 inches in length and girth combined must pay a minimum rate equal to that of a 15 pound parcel for the zone for which addressed.

Applies For Funds For Downtown Project

At the Monday night meeting of the Appomattox Town Council, members authorized the passing of a resolution to begin Step 1 of the Town of Appomattox's Waste Water Treatment Facility, the first official vote to begin the up-grading and improving of the sewage system in the town.

Step 1 is not to exceed a cost of $22,000, 75% of which is to be federally funded. To complete the entire project, three steps must be completed before the Town of Appomattox has the Waste Water Treatment Facility they feel is needed.

Council voted to authorize Henry Pack, Mayor of the Town of Appomattox, to secure the services of May-Hines Consuling Engineers, as proposed, to begin with Step 1 and to continue with future plans as the need arises.

The Town of Appomattox has made an application for funds through H.U.D. for the Downtown Development Project and on Monday night council authorized two Public Hearings, Sept. 15 and 21, and also authorized the Town Manager to submit the application in its present form.

Mrs. Julia Perkins, representative of the Junior Woman's Club, appeared before council to bring them up to date regarding plans for the Annual Railroad Festival.

The following is a summary of the activities of the Office of Building and Housing within the Town of Appomattox for the month of August, 1975. Farmers National Bank, permit to remodel; H. S. Brightbill, Jr., permit for an addition; and permits were issued to Bennett T. Matthews for two new structures.

Ronald Spiggle, councilman, reported that the boat and motor for the lagoon have been delivered and are operational and doing a very good job.

Everette Moore's loader gives John Goin, Soil Conservation Service Technician, "a lift" to probe depth of mud in Thomasville Furniture Industries' sediment pond. Tracks in the background are those of "mud turtle".

Watershed Conservation Benefits Industry

Last summer Thomasville Furniture Industries, Inc., Appomattox plant, constructed a sediment basin to catch the soil eroding from their development. Now that most of their land is established to protective vegetative cover, or being renegated, they are removing the sediment basin.

Sediment basins are constructed much like farm ponds, except that the pipe is perforated and surrounded by a gravel cone to filter the water and catch the mud that it did. The half-acre basin is covered with about four feet of mud or 3200 cubic yards which would have polluted downstream waters.

While this basin was constructed to catch sediment until protective vegetation was established, it shows the importance of having good conservation practices on the watershed. Unless your watershed is protected with conservation practices, your pond may turn out to be a sediment basin, too.
